Party Kit

Party Ideas

Get ready to throw the best party your kingdom—or bookstore—has ever seen! This exclusive party kit contains everything you need.

Kingdoms and Beyond

No party is complete without a few decorations. Let your imagination loose and designate certain areas of the store as different kingdoms, worlds, or landmarks from the book. A cozy nook can become the Corner Kingdom. Fluff up a few big pillows to create The Eastern Kingdom (once the Sleeping Kingdom). Have a set of stairs? Mark the spot where Cinderella left behind her glass slipper on that fateful night. Pick your favorite spots and recreate them in your store!

Fairy-Tale Food

Lily pad tea with flies might not go over well with guests, but there are plenty of fairy-tale themed snacks that even Goldilocks would find just right! How about some delicious apples (try one if you dare!) or cupcakes straight out of the Pat-a-Cake bakery? You could even serve gingerbread, as long as you don't borrow it from the walls of anyone's house...

Short Story-Time

Create your own adventure, just like Conner! Set up an area with stationery supplies and a few writing prompts at the top of each sheet of paper. Start with the classic, "Once upon a time," or imagine your own wild scenario, "There once was a blissworm in Chicago . . ." Have each person write a few sentences and then move on to the next prompt. The story will build as each person adds to it and then everyone can read them out loud together!

Story Time Scavenger Hunt

Send Book Huggers on a mission to find books throughout the store. Create a list of ten items to hunt for. Examples include: a fairy-tale collection, a book by another author named Chris, a book about animals, etc.

Friends and Foes

There is a wild cast of characters in the Land of Stories (and beyond!). Write character names on Post-it Notes or index cards with a piece of tape at the top. Have everyone place a card on his or her forehead without peeking at the name that is written on it. The goal is for the person to guess who is written on his or her card, by having other party guests give clues. See who knows their Land of Stories cast best!

Pictionary

Take the classic party game and give it a fairy-tale twist. Divide into two teams and write fairy-tale characters, places, or items on slips of paper. Each team selects an artist for each round. The team then has 60 seconds to guess what the artist is trying to describe! After five rounds, whichever team has the most correct guesses wins!
