WE RULE & NIGHT DIY BOOKMARKS

Print and cut along the dotted line. You can either print double-sided or print on single sheets to then tape or glue the two sides together. Happy reading!

WE RULE & NIGHT DIY BOOKMARKS

Print and cut along the dotted line. You can either print double-sided or print on single sheets to then tape or glue the two sides together. Happy reading!

The famous name, Night Witches, was given by the German troops, who said their airplanes

FACT:

made a sound that reminded them of the whooshing of a witch's broomstick. The pilots in WE RULE THE NIGHT

were inspired by real life
women who flew night missions at the Soviet front during World War II. They were known as the NIGHT WITCHES.

FACT:

Marina Raskova formed three aviation units intended to be women's-only units during World War II—a night bombing regiment, a day bombing regiment, and a fighter regiment. By the end of the war, only the night bombing regiment, the famous Night Witches, was all female.

The pilots in
WE RULE
THE NIGHT

were inspired by real life
women who flew
night missions at the Soviet front during World War II. They were known as the NIGHT WITCHES.

FACT:

The Night Witches would usually fly 6–8 missions per night. Two women once flew eighteen missions in a single night!

The pilots in WE RULE THE NIGHT

were inspired by real life
women who flew
night missions at the Soviet front during World War II. They were known as the NIGHT WITCHES.

FACT:

The title "Hero of the Soviet Union" was the highest distinction a member of the USSR could receive.

Twenty-three of the Night Witches were called Heroes of the Soviet Union.

3

The pilots in
WE RULE
THE NIGHT
were inspired by real life

women who flew
night missions at the Soviet front during World War II. They were known as the NIGHT WITCHES.

FACT:

By the end of the war, 261 women had served as Night Witches.

