

If You LAUGH,
I'm Starting This Book OVER

STORYTIME KIT

If you are about to complete this storytime kit, please follow this VERY important rule. If you laugh, I'm starting these activities over!

This kit contains a storytelling challenge, a drawing page, and a collage craft to keep you laughing all day long.

NEED MORE NOT-SO-SERIOUS IDEAS?

- Make your own silly reading rules and write them down in a very important box. Give them to your parent, teacher, or grown-up the next time you read a book together.
- Challenge a friend to a laughing contest. Tell each other jokes, make funny faces, or stare deeply into each other's eyes until one of you laughs!
- Gather a group and hold an impromptu talent show. Channel your inner comedian, singer, dancer, or whatever your heart desires!
