Designed by Donna Pedaci

The pinafore smock top is open in back and ties with a ribbon bow. It has a square neckline and empire waist. It's the perfect feminine year-round look for your little girl. Wear with pants and shirt in cold weather, over shorts or a skirt in warm weather.

MATERIALS

- * Locate the pattern in the front pocket (sheet #1)
- * 1 yard of 44/45" fabric (quiltingweight cotton, not suitable for unidirectional fabric)
- * 1 spool of coordinating thread
- * 1½ yards of 5%" coordinating
- ribbon, cut into two 27" pieces
- * 2 buttons (for embellishment)

1 Determine Your Child's Size

Determine which smock size you are going to make based on the child's chest size.

| Toddler size | 2T  | 3T  | 4T  |
|--------------|-----|-----|-----|
| Chest size   | 21" | 22" | 23" |

2 Measure, Mark, and Cut

Place your fabric in a single layer with wrong side facing up, then fold one selvage end over about 7" or 8", enough to accommodate the bodice pattern pieces in the correct size. Place the pieces as shown, and measure and mark the pieces listed. Cut everything out and transfer ribbon placement markings to the wrong side of the fabric.

- * Bodice front (cut 2 on fold)
- * Bodice back (cut 4)
- * Skirt front 28" wide × 18" tall (cut 1)
- * Skirt back 14" wide × 18" tall (cut 2)

NOTE: Place "tall" dimensions and pattern pieces along the grainline of your fabric.
