

WHAT IS IN THE PALM OF YOUR HAND?

In Jennifer Raudenbush's In the Palm of My Hand, illustrated by Isabella Conti, a child learns that even a single acorn or grain of sand can hold the infinite possibilities of the universe. Now, every kid can join in on the fun with this activity inspired by the book!

DIRECTIONS

1. Trace your hand.
2. Inside the outline of your hand, draw something from nature that brings you joy—a flock of birds, a flower, a tree, a butterfly , etc.
3. Write one sentence about how nature makes you feel.
4. Hang up your drawing or give it to a friend!

Activity inspired by
In the Palm of My Hand
Written by Jennifer Raudenbush
Illustrated by Isabella Conti
ISBN: 9780762479870