TIPS ON THROWING YOUR OWN FAERIE REVEL

Celebrate The Prisoner's Throne by throwing an epic revel to rival even those at the High Court! Whether you're reveling in person or using the new-fangled mortal tool called the internet, you can use this kit full of recipes, quizzes, and more for a party that will live on in memory far longer than a mortal mayfly life.

You may not be able to call upon ragwort steeds to send your herald across the land, but you can send out invitations! Make sure to include time, attire, and any links to meet digitally! Social media templates can be found at thenovl.at/faerierevelkit.

No fae courtier could do without the perfect revel attire. Vintage prom dresses and flower crowns, tuxedo jackets and Halloween costumes of old, all manner of shimmery make up...the fae don't care where your clothes come from, as long as they are as ridiculous as they are fabulous!

Decorating one's home to rival the courts' underhill is no small feat. Try using fresh (or faux) flowers and moss to create an otherworldly atmosphere. Fairy lights are essential, of course, and an easy way to set a magical mood. And scented candles are an absolute must! If you cannot gather your fellow courtiers under one roof, you can find zoom backgrounds and other downloadable assets at thenovl.at/faerierevelkit.

As for refreshments, we recommend taking inspiration from the High Court itself. Venison with pomegranate seed and balsamic glaze, sugary petit fours, Chinese takeout...so long as its eclectic and delicious! May we recommend the faerie wine, a recipe for which you'll find in this kit. Be warned though—all mortals should salt their food and beware of the faerie fruit!

READ IT AND EAT IT: FAERIE WINE

INGREDIENTS

- 2 oz Pear Juice
- 2 oz Freshly Brewed Honey Vanilla Chamomile Tea
- 0.5 oz Honey Lavender Simple Syrup
- 0.5 oz Freshly Squeezed Lemon Juice
- Sparkling Grape Juice

SUGAR RIM

- Rub a lemon slice gently around the rim of the glass.
- Pour an even amount of sugar on a small plate. Dip glass, rim down, directly into sugar.

HONEY LAVENDAR SIMPLE SYRUP

- 8 oz water
- 7 oz sugar
- 2 oz honey
- 2 oz (volume) lavender buds

Add water to saucepan, bring to low simmer. Add lavender buds, cook for 20 minutes. Fold in sugar and honey and cook until dissolved. Cool and pour syrup through strainer to remove buds. Keep refrigerated in a sealed container.

Don't have lavender buds? Honey simple syrup will do!

Use equal parts water and honey.

Bring to boil and then simmer for 10 minutes, stirring consistently. Once syrup has thickened slightly, pour into sealed container and keep refrigerated.

MOCKTAIL RECIPE

- Rim glass with sugar.
- Add first four items in a shaker with ice. Shake vigorously. Pour into glass.
- Top with a dash of sparkling grape juice.

THE SIGNS AS THE STOLEN HEIR CHARACTERS

ARIES – SUREN

Rage, plots, more rage, and always playing the long game. Also, hooves.

TAURUS – REBECCA

The ultimate homebody.

GEMINI – BOGDANA

Wicked humor wielded as a two-faced weapon.

CANCER – HYACINTHE

The most sensitive. Desperately needs a hug, but please don't touch.

LEO – QUEEN ANNET

The luxury has arrived. Attention must be paid.

VIRGO – MADOC

Will judge you. Always has a scheme. Still judging you.

LIBRA – THE THISTLEWITCH

Whose side? The winning side.

SCORPIO – LADY NORE

Betrayal looms perpetually.

SAGITTARIUS – OAK

The wandering life of the party with a loyal heart (especially for other fire signs).

CAPRICORN – TIERNAN

Duty, duty, duty. The adult of the group.

AQUARIUS – LORD JOREL

Above it all. Feelings? Emotions? Those are for lesser mortals.

PISCES – JACK OF THE LAKES

A water sign constructed entirely of vibes. Sound familiar?
