A Little Bit of Enneagram

An Introduction to the Nine Personality Types

Ashton Whitmoyer-Ober

9781454954446

Hardcover

$9.99 | $12.99 CAN

128 pp | 5 x 7

Pub Date: 6/11/24

The newest title in the Little Bit series, this is an essential guide to the enneagram, a powerful tool for understanding the nine major personality types and their motivations.

The enneagram is an incredibly powerful tool for understanding personality types: who we are, how we function best in the world, and how we relate to each other. A Little Bit of Enneagram is an essential guide to the basics of this amazing system, including background and history and a basic overview of the nine major motivations. Expert author Ashton Whitmoyer-Ober also branches out into enneagram “wings” or variations, the motivations’ role in interpersonal relationships, and more in this easy-to-use handbook on an increasingly popular phenomenon.

Sexy Decks

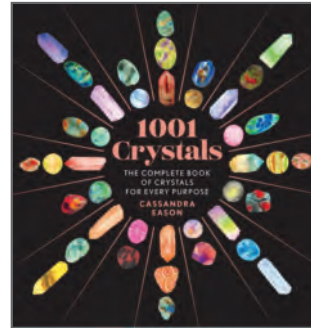

A new series of inclusive sex decks that incorporate game elements and simple rules to excite your body and mind.

Each game in A Hot Minute gives you fresh, fleeting fun to take your pleasure from zero to sixty as fast as possible. The object of the game is to try as many one-minute activities as you can, each leading you and your partner closer to desire. Find a card you don't like? That's fine, you're allowed to skip it—but then your partner gets two minutes when it's their turn. (Alternative rule: if you can successfully complete the challenge in under a minute, you get to take another turn. If you fail or exceed the timer, then your partner takes over.)

Nature Nurture Oracle

A 45-Card Deck for Growth & Healing

Marcella Kroll

This deck is a tool for self-discovery and support, which invites you into the complex web of interaction between the animal, plant, and spirit worlds. And not only that: by working with these cards, you are also calling attention to these symbols of nature, many of which are threatened by extinction. Bringing them to the front of your mind sends healing to them. In exchanging this respect and reverence, you support a more connected world and gain the strength to carry on as you travel your own path.

The Sherwood Oracle

Hidden Lore of the Wild Forest
Mark Ryan and John Matthews,
Illustrated by Anne Yvonne Gilbert

This is a deck that breathes life into the forests of Sherwood, where romance, heroism, and the supernatural occur in equal parts, and questions about the most archetypal characteristics found in the human psyche can be answered. Written by the creators of the bestselling The Wildwood Tarot and illustrated by iconic artist Anne Yvonne Gilbert, this is an enchanting and enlightening tool for uncovering the legends hidden in the human subconscious.

The Rainbow Witch

Enhance Your Magic with the Secret Powers of Color

Kac Young

Rainbow Witchcraft forms an arc of color and magic that embraces every faction of witchcraft. Through seven sections that include initiations into each of the seven rays, The Rainbow Witch provides an array of wisdom for any witch who is open to channeling rainbow wisdom. In each of the seven rays, Kac Young shares how to create a unique color altar; work with spells, divination, and chakra meditation to open to each ray's power; and finally, perform a color-based ritual to join your energy with the ray's. Additional appendices on a variety of correspondences and symbolic languages add to this handbook on a multi-faceted, unique, and innovative branch of witchcraft that is available to anyone, from a beginner to an advanced practitioner.

Social Media Spellbook

366 Ways to Get Witchy on the Web

Amy Blackthorn and Natalie Zaman

Social media is part of our lives, and it's an increasingly popular place for witches of all kinds to meet and create new spells. On TikTok, Instagram, Twitter, and more, witches set intentions, manifest their dream jobs, and even create virtual altars for their ancestors. Social Media Spellbook is a perfect way to take part in this trend by using social media to channel the power of the universe. Authors Amy Blackthorn and Natalie Zaman propose adaptable formulas that draw on symbolic imagery, astrology, tarot, herbs, and crystals—not to mention everyday desire—in a spell-a-day format that anyone, even a beginner witch, can use.

Dogs About Town

20 Postcards

Carly Beck

No canines are cooler than the twenty stylin' and wildin' dogs in this hilarious set of 20 postcards by artist Carly Beck. These paintings of perfectly dressed dogs feature top breeds like Frenchies, retrievers, and many more, each inviting you into a world that's part Richard Scarry, part Vogue fashion shoot.

Draw the Line

A 100-Day Journal to Build Your Creative Confidence

Caleb Robertson

In this unique sketch journal, creativity expert Caleb Robertson helps you tap into that trove of inspiration by guiding you through 100 days of engaging and thought-provoking exercise prompts. The exercises are divided into four categories: thinking-outside-the-box challenges, personal interpretation, comparing and contrasting elements, and perception. Each page also includes a tip to help you if you get stuck, and an “inspo” takeaway to keep you motivated and self-aware.

The Odyssey Travel Journal

A Memory Book Inspired by the Classic Tale of Adventure

In Homer's The Odyssey, brave and faithful Ulysses made an epic quest to return from the battlefields of Troy to his beloved Penelope in Ithaca. The classic tale is a story of thrilling adventure, but it's also a travel diary: it details stunning vistas, exotic creatures and customs, sumptuous food and drink, and all the unexpected pleasures and challenges of travel. With quotations from Samuel Butler's landmark prose translation of The Odyssey, use this beautifully illustrated journal to turn your own travels into those worthy of the Muses.

What to Cook When You Don't Feel Like Cooking

Caroline Chambers

With three little boys less than two years apart and a packed schedule as an online creator, Caroline Chambers often doesn't feel like cooking. Inspired by her wildly popular Substack newsletter of the same name, this book is brimming with efficient recipes that take the guesswork out of dinner—in fact, each one is a complete meal: protein, veg, starch, done! The recipes are organized by the amount of time they take to cook, so whether you have 15 minutes to throw together something or a little bit more time on your hands, dinnertime is totally doable. On top of that, Caro gives you more ways to choose, so you can search by protein or mood. Most importantly, these recipes include Caro's famously extensive swaps, riffs, tips, shortcuts, and more to be sure they work best for you, helping you save money, improvise, and even learn a thing or two.

The Healing Cookbook

Nourishing Plant-Based Recipes to Help You Feel Better and Stay Well

Gemma Ogston

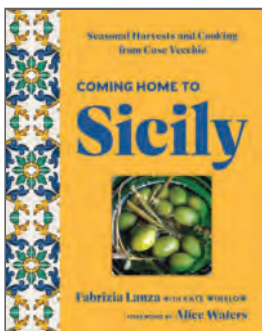

This new book from Gemma Ogston shows readers how to supercharge their immune system and boost their mood to stay well. This title comes at a time when many of us have struggled with our health and are looking for ways to bolster our immune system. It is filled with delicious plant-based recipes and practical well-being tips. The first two chapters—Recovery and Replenish—offer recipes for when your physical and/or mental health need support through healing from illness. The second two chapters—Staying Well and Supercharge—are designed to improve and boost immunity as a means to prevent or minimize future illness.

Sparkling

Champagne and Sparkling Cocktails for Any Occasion

Elva Ramirez

Champagne and sparkling wine are the liquid symbols of celebration, good cheer, and conviviality. But they can also be the star of more complex drinks—the sophisticated backbone that elevates all the ingredients around them. This book contains 75 recipes for Champagne and sparkling wine–based cocktails (both classic and original), as well as recipes for syrups, garnishes, and a few delicious snacks, and tips for using bubbles in mixed drinks. From cover to cover, this book entices readers with the style and glamour synonymous with a flute of bubbles, and offers recipes to make any occasion sparkle.

Tiki with a Twist

75 Cool, Fresh, and Wild Tropical Cocktails

Lynn Calvo and James O. Fraioli

Tiki drinks immediately conjure beachfront paradise, tropical fruit, and gloriously lost afternoons. This book by tropical drink master and owner of Lynn's Hula Hut, Lynn Calvo, gives readers refreshed recipes for nostalgic classics, such as the Mai Tai and the Zombie; original creations such as April Showers and Bayou Berry Tea; and tiki twists on familiar drinks, like the Island Old Fashioned and Guava Mint Caipirinha. Vibrantly illustrated with images of finished drinks, along with expert information on mugs and glassware, infusions, and garnishes, this book is a celebration of the art and technique of this iconic category of drinks—with a twist.

Cone of Shame

Elevated Looks That Will Turn Heads

Winnie Au

Winnie Au's Cone of Shame series—the subject of numerous international gallery shows and online profiles—transforms the typical sad “dog in a cone” photo into something both glorious, silly, and beautiful. For Winnie's photographs, the haute couture designer Marie-Yan Morvan creates one-of-a-kind high-fashion collars displayed in photographs that help celebrate and explore the joys of doghood. This special book will feature dozens of dog photos along with basic info about each pup's unique story.

Dictionary of Fine Distinctions

Nuances, Niceties, and Subtle Shades of Meaning

Eli Burnstein

Swamp or bog? Guilt or shame? Club soda or sparkling water?

Life's language throws countless nuanced differences at us every day. In lieu of understanding, we muddle through, ordering a latte when we really want a cortado, frowning over ethics when we really mean morality. For the intellectually curious and word-lovers alike, Dictionary of Fine Distinctions walks us through hundreds of everyday differences to bring clarity and understanding at last.

The Bush Family Women

Their Story in Photographs

Elaine S. Povich

The Bush family's political resume is unequalled in US history: one senator, two governors, one vice president, and two presidents, all of whom have helped shape the nation for decades. The Bushes have long lived in front of the camera, but never has a photographic book focused on the stories and achievements of the three generations of the family's women who came of age in the public eye: Barbara Pierce Bush; Laura Welch Bush; and twins Barbara Bush Coyne and Jenna Bush Hager. In this stunning, collectible volume, their inspiring journeys—from childhood to the White House and beyond—are brought to life. It features more than 150 photographs, quotes, and highlights from notable speeches, and is punctuated by insightful commentary from award-winning Washington journalist and author Elaine S. Povich.

The Puerto Rican War

A Graphic History

John Vasquez Mejias

Rendered in gorgeously carved wood blocks and buffeted with historical supplemental material, John Vasquez Mejias's The Puerto Rican War tells the story of the 1950 insurrection on the island that resulted in 38 deaths and a failed assassination attempt against President Harry S. Truman. Told as a fable, in which the leaders of the movement are visited by the ghosts of Michael Collins and Gandhi, this book showcases an important and often overlooked moment in American history and a historical touchstone for the Puerto Rican independence movement.

Speeches That Changed Our Times

From 1945 to the Present

Edited by Carlo Batà

This book contains moving speeches that have great emotional impact, words that have changed the course of history such as Martin Luther King's "I Have a Dream," Winston Churchill's "Iron Curtain," Pope John XXIII's "Caress," and Barack Obama's "A New Beginning." It has been updated to include Ursula von der Leyen's State of the Union Address to the European Union about the conflict in Ukraine. Speeches That Changed Our Times features the words of not only statespeople, but also scientists, literary figures, entrepreneurs, and courageous girls like Malala Yousafzai, who asks that new generations be guaranteed the right to education.

Bruce Springsteen

50 Years of Rock 'N' Roll

Ernesto Assante

From podcasts with former President Barack Obama to record-smashing sales deals, Bruce Springsteen is just as much The Boss now as he was decades ago. Follow him through five chronological chapters that highlight both his greatest milestones and lesser-known struggles—as he introduces the world to heartland rock songs about working-class America, loses success in the 1990s, and returns with a vengeance to ring in the new millennium while lending his support to a dividing political landscape in new age America.

U2

Past Present Future

Ernesto Assante

U2 remains deeply rooted in tradition while still looking toward the future and pushing boundaries. This book relates their story through spectacular photographs and a precise description of the events and major stages of their tours and recordings, as well as through quotes taken from interviews with Bono and The Edge. This edition has been updated to include the band's latest albums, concerts, and achievements.

Artificial Intelligence: An Illustrated History

From Medieval Robots to Neural Networks

Clifford A. Pickover

First released in 2019, Artificial Intelligence: An Illustrated History explores the historic origins and current applications of AI in such diverse fields as computing, medicine, popular culture, mythology, and philosophy. Through more than 100 entries, award-winning author Clifford A. Pickover offers a granular, yet accessible, glimpse into the world of AI—from medieval robots and Boolean algebra to facial recognition and artificial neural networks. The updated paperback edition brings readers up to speed with coverage of technologies such as DALL-E and ChatGPT, and it explores the very real fear that AI will alter the course of humanity—forever.

Floral Mandalas Coloring Book

Sara Muzio

Grab your colored pencils and bring Sara Muzio's beautiful illustrations to life.

Mandalas are one of the most fantastic expressions of Eastern spirituality, and with their symmetrical shapes full of details they stimulate not only contemplation, but also imagination. This wonderful coloring book is the work of Sara Muzio, who was inspired by this Asian tradition to create a series of highly-detailed mandala designs, consisting of incredibly beautiful intertwining floral patterns. Immerse yourself in wondrous nature as you bring color to your own creative self-expression.

For the Love of Renovating

Tips, Tricks, and Inspiration for Creating Your Dream Home

Barry Bordelon and Jordan Slocum

For the Love of Renovating is the book every fixer-upper needs. Jordan and Barry—aka the Brownstone Boys—are the go-to renovation team for historic brownstones and other older homes that need a little TLC. In their debut book, they walk readers through the entire process of renovating a house, starting with things to consider before you've made an offer, followed by guidance on developing a design, a schedule, and budgeting; they end by giving a room-by-room tour that includes helpful tips and inspiration. Throughout the book, beautiful photos and Renovation Recipes give the ingredients and step-by-step instructions for turning the house you have into the house you love.

The Art of Gothic Living

Dark Decor for the Modern Macabre

Paul Gambino

From a spirit-haunted church in western Ohio to an ancient Italian castle, from a freakish funhouse on the Jersey shore to a Connecticut cottage with a storybook façade that belies its spine-tingling contents: this collection of aspirational interiors will appeal to anyone who wishes to live in the luxury of Gothic darkness without sacrificing even an ounce of style. The Art of Gothic Living profiles 15 homes and their owners, chronicling their journeys to creating living spaces that reflect a philosophy steeped in the tenets of Gothic subculture—individuality, creativity, and a fascination with life's shadow side.

Abandoned Places of World War II

Michael Kerrigan

A rusting anti-aircraft fort in the North Sea. A German submarine base in France. A flak tower in a Viennese park. Abandoned Places of World War II explores more than 100 bunkers, pillboxes, submarine bases, forts, and gun emplacements from the North Sea to Okinawa. Included are defensive structures, such as the Maginot Line on France's eastern border with Germany, Germany's own western and eastern border defenses, and the Atlantic Wall, the German-built bunkers and pillboxes on the coast from Denmark down to Brittany.

Abandoned Towns

Chris McNab

From Pripyat in Ukraine to Bodie in California to English villages requisitioned by the Ministry of Defence during World War II, from Greek leper colonies to deserted Italian mountain villages, Abandoned Towns is a brilliant pictorial work examining lost worlds. With reasons ranging from the collapse of local industry to being pushed aside to make way for a new industry, from earthquakes and volcanoes to man-made chemical spills, from war zones to demilitarized zones, the book explores a wide range of desolate urban environments from around the globe.

Ancient Egypt

A Photographic History

Nigel Fletcher-Jones

Arranged chronologically, Ancient Egypt offers a compact photographic guide, from the 4000 BC Naqada culture to the end of the Ptolemaic dynasty with the suicide of Cleopatra in 30 BC. In between, discover the Narmer Palette, a 31st-century BC stone tablet that records the unification of Upper and Lower Egypt by King Narmer; learn about Amenhotep the Magnificent, during whose reign Egypt reached the peak of its artistic and international power; and discover how Egypt was ruled by Archaemenid Persia for almost 200 years, until the arrival of Alexander the Great and his all-conquering Macedonian army.

Tao Te Ching (Pocket Edition)

Lao Tzu, Translated by James Trapp

This dual-language edition of Tao Te Ching presents the original Chinese characters with a new translation on the facing page, and is illustrated throughout to make an attractive pocket gift edition. With a new introduction that discusses the questioned authorship of the text and editorial notes, all 81 brief chapters are included, ranging from advice for politicians to wise words for the everyday person. Of immense influence across millennia, Tao Te Ching is a classic text richly deserving of this handy pocket edition.

Tokyo

The sprawling metropolis of Tokyo is a city of contrasts. It is a city of ancient traditions and modern technology, of bustling streets and quiet temples. The city is a blend of the old and the new, of the past and the future. It is a city that has grown from a small fishing village to one of the most populous cities in the world. The city is a testament to the power of human ingenuity and the resilience of the human spirit.

Glaciers and Fjords

Norway is a country of stunning natural beauty. It is a country of fjords, glaciers, and mountains. The country is a land of contrasts, of ancient traditions and modern technology. The country is a testament to the power of nature and the resilience of the human spirit. The country is a place where the past meets the future, where the old and the new coexist in harmony.

Rabbits

From Hares and Jackrabbits to Adorable Pets

Tom Jackson

In Rabbits, you'll learn about the many breeds found across the world, from the Riverine rabbit, solitary and nocturnal, one of the most endangered animals in the world, to the French Angora, docile and sociable, often bred for the long hair of its coat, known as Angora wool. Not only are they the adorable household pets that many of us know and love, in this book you will discover rabbits as powerful animals, photographed in their wild natural habitats—they adapt to survive and ruthlessly hunt their prey.

Whales & Dolphins

Tom Jackson

Did you know that porpoises are often shy creatures and therefore most of us will very rarely encounter them in the wild? Among their species is the vaquita, tragically the most endangered species of any whale, dolphin, or porpoise. Whales and dolphins alike are renowned for their intelligent nature and fascinating social rituals. With full captions explaining the different species, behavior, and feeding habits, Whales & Dolphins is a vibrant look at these marine mammals in vivid photographs.

The Night in Question

A Novel

Susan Fletcher

Florrie Butterfield—eighty-seven, one-legged, and of cheerful disposition—believes there can't be any more surprises in life. Yet one evening, there's an accident at Babbington Hall—the adult residence where she lives—so shocking and strange that Florrie is suspicious; is this really an accident? Or is she being lied to? Is she living alongside a potential murderer? In her efforts to learn the truth, Florrie is forced to look back on her own life, with all its passions and regrets; she must confront her own bloody secret—and, at last, confess. Above all, she learns, through the help of her new friend, Stanhope, that when it comes to love, it's never too late.

When Cicadas Cry

A Novel

Caroline Cleveland

A young white woman has been bludgeoned to death in a rural church on Cicada Road, just outside the small town of Walterboro, South Carolina—a state that has been roiling with racial tension since the shooting of an unarmed Black man by a white police officer. Sam Jenkins, who is Black, was found covered in blood and kneeling over her. Zach Stander, a down-and-out lawyer, is convinced to take Sam's case by his detective girlfriend, Addie, while the local solicitor prosecuting the case wields the power of an influential family. And then there's the mysterious cold-case of teen girls murdered on a nearby beach—is there a connection, and will Addie and Zach put the pieces together in time?

The Leap Year Gene

A Novel

Shelley Wood

World War I, Canada, 1915: Lillian McKinley learns that her husband has been killed in France. The devastating news has a curious impact on her unborn daughter, who gestates far longer than she should. By the time Kit McKinley is born, February 29, 1916, the timing of her birth raises questions. Kit proves to be a happy and intelligent little girl, but painfully slow to age: just one year for every four. She and her family must keep on the move to keep her secret intact. Finally, when Kit reaches her teens and can pass for an adult, she must decide whether she wants to stay on the run. Ultimately, once the human genome is mapped and scientists start to research ways to suppress and amplify individual genetic traits, Kit will need to make difficult choices about the strange quirk in her DNA that has made her who she is.

Ghost Mother

Kelly Dwyer

Lilly Bly is struggling with infertility issues when her husband, Jack, gets a new job that moves them from Chicago to a small Wisconsin town. After Lilly falls in love with a decrepit mansion well out of their price range—she's convinced she'll finally get pregnant there—Jack reluctantly agrees to buy the wreck. But when Lilly learns that her dream house was the site of a triple homicide/suicide in the 1950s, she begins to experience strange occurrences that soon lead her to believe the house is haunted. Are her ghostly encounters real, or is this a cascading mental breakdown? As Lilly learns more about the deaths and her visions become increasingly vivid, her relationship with Jack deteriorates, leading to a dramatic and irreversible climax.

The Worst Woman in London

Julia Bennet

James Standish knows how to play society's game: marry a debutante and inherit a massive fortune. At least, that's the plan until he meets Francesca Thorne. She's not the sort of woman a respectable gentleman like James could marry—not least because she's married already to James's friend Edward. Francesca is determined to flout convention and divorce her philandering husband. When her James sweet-talks his way into her life—tasked with convincing Francesca to abandon her dream of freedom—she's unprepared for the passion that flares between them. Torn apart by conflicting desires, they must choose whether to keep chasing the lives they've always wanted or to take a chance on a new and forbidden love.

The Five Stages of Courting Dalisay Ramos

Melissa de la Cruz

Modern love and tradition collide in this spicy romantic comedy.

Evan Saatchi can't keep his eyes off his new co-worker, Dalisay Ramos. But Dalisay soundly rejects Evan when he asks her out.

Evan learns from his Filipino friends that Dalisay expects more from potential suitors. If he wants a chance with her, he's going to have to go through the Five Stages: the courtship ritual that lovers in the Philippines have performed for generations.

As Evan attempts to win Dalisay's heart, she is driven to distraction by Evan's sexy labors, and soon their "courtship" turns into a sizzling secret.

Can Dalisay and Evan carry a rich history into a shared future?

All the Little Liars

Victoria Selman

Told across two timelines and tapping into a horrific crime, All the Little Liars is a gripping novel about toxic friendship, the ripple effects of murder, and sisterly love that asks: how much would you sacrifice to belong?

California 2003: Finn "Kat" Jackman is a 10-year-old girl living with her tween sister, father, and beloved housekeeper. When a 13-year-old girl disappears from a party at Turtle Lake, and the word LIAR written in blood is discovered on the trunk of a nearby tree, Kat's life is turned upside down.

What we know: Three teenagers went to the lake that night but only two came back. Later, they confess to murdering their friend. But why? And did they act alone? And what was the involvement of the mysterious and alluring Manson-like figure Ryder Grady?

What REALLY happened at Turtle Lake?: You think you know. Think again.

Stay A Spell

This light, fun, steamy paranormal romance series about a coven of witch sisters is an indie publishing success story with a strong built-in audience and enormous potential for growth in the trade paperback market.

The Next Good Thing

A True Story of Positivity and Transformation in 10 Lessons

Marcos Perez and D. Eric Maikranz

Marcos was once a happy family man and successful graphic artist. But after losing his marriage and his job—and nearly losing his newly outed transgender son to a suicide attempt after a violent attack by classmates—Marcos receded into depression and anxiety. Desperate, he opened himself up to whomever or whatever might be listening and asked for help. The answer he got back was clear: “Just do the next good thing.” The next morning, he received the email that would change his life. The subject line read simply, “Help our friend Joe.” Inside was a job offer as a caregiver to a remarkable 87-year-old, Joe Sabah. This is the inspirational true story of their friendship and Joe’s lasting gift of ten life-changing lessons.

Me vs. Brain

An Overthinker’s Guide to Life

Hayley Morris

In her warm and witty debut about living with intrusive thoughts and anxiety, bestselling author Hayley Morris shows—with her signature sparkling humor and unflinching honesty—that being an overthinker is both a blessing and a curse. She confronts the funny (if painful) moments that arise when your brain and body refuse to cooperate and your inner voice won’t shut up. No subject is too taboo for Hayley, whether that’s forgetting how to walk when people are watching or the frustrations of dating. Me vs. Brain is for any reader hoping to befriend their brain, even when it’s “scatty, annoying, and wrong about basically everything.”

Frankenstein (Deluxe Edition)

Mary Shelley, Illustrated by John Coulthart

For years, Dr. Victor Frankenstein labors to create a new race of intelligent beings. But when he succeeds, Dr. Frankenstein is horrified by the ugly patchwork being he has brought to life, and he abandons his creation, setting off a chain of events that will lead to murder, despair, and bitter loneliness. This deluxe, lavish edition features two-color artwork throughout, an acetate jacket over a printed case, fore-edges, and a ribbon marker.

Game Without Rules

Michael Gilbert, Introduction by Alex Segura

Miss Marple meets John le Carré in these linked short stories of espionage and mystery, with two middle-aged British Intelligence agents (and a dog!) as sleuths. Game Without Rules features Samuel Behrens and Daniel Calder, two secret British Intelligence operatives who work in the “E” (External) Branch of the Joint Services Standing Intelligence Committee. Under the direction of Mr. Fortescue—a mild-mannered bank manager and secret spy-master—Behrens and Calder will sleuth, entrap, and, if necessary, assassinate whomever dares to threaten the peace of Britain and its inhabitants. Whether they are investigating the identity of a dead officer in a secret bunker, infiltrating a dangerous circle of fellow spies, or rescuing a double agent, Behrens and Calder will keep the realm safe with precision, efficiency, and British camaraderie.

Baby Got Facts

Totally '90s Trivia

Buzzy Cohen

Trivia maven (and '90s kid) Buzzy Cohen brings all of his game show chops to the table for this nostalgically puzzling look at the decade that gave us Britney & Christina, clear soda, "Bo Knows," the Disney Afternoon, and so much more. Most of the book will feature multipage quizzes that include standard trivia questions, with a mix of multiple-choice questions and open-ended questions, some themed, and some offering a mélange of '90s trivia. Alternating between those quizzes will be a mix of variety trivia puzzles in different formats, keeping the experience fresh throughout.

A-to-Gen Z Crosswords

72 Puzzles That Hit Different

Ada Nicolle

Ada Nicolle created a crossword blog several years ago called Luckystreak Xwords, as well as a Patreon, both of which feature themeless puzzles focusing primarily on modern trends and Gen Z culture. She writes, "I like to represent people that don't often get the spotlight in mainstream crossword puzzles, and I figure crosswords are more fun when they feel like they were written by a person living in the present moment." This collection will consist of 72 crosswords imbued with Ada's singular personality and humor, compiled from the best of her blog, plus 30 brand-new puzzles written especially for this book.

Grids Just Wanna Have Fun

Awesome '80s Crosswords

Edited by Francis Heaney

Are your crosswords skills and '80s knowledge outrageous and bodacious? In the vein of 2023's New Grids on the Block, these totally tubular crosswords are all about the neon decade. And like its '90s counterpart, Grids Just Wanna Have Fun will feature a flock of all-new crosswords by top constructors, this time filled with gnarly '80s pop culture references. Need help? Don't have a cow. Take a day off and invite friends over for an excellent solving adventure! If the puzzles stop making sense, don't you forget about the answer section—it'll help you out time after time.

New Grids on the Block

Hella '90s Crosswords

Francis Heaney

Is your '90s knowledge da bomb? Are your crossword skills all that and a bag of chips? The 411 is that these puzzles are filled with clues that blossom with rad '90s trivia and pop culture references, from the Spice Girls to Troll dolls to Clueless and beyond. Plus, the puzzles progress from easy to hard, which makes this book perfect for '90s kids of all skill levels and those looking to take a step-by-step approach to solving. If you get stuck, the answer section explains it all for you.

Off-the-Wall Word Searches

Eric Berlin and Janinne Berlin

This all-new collection of word searches will offer a wide variety of twists on standard word searches. Some puzzles might have symbols included in the grid (like stars that represent the letters S-T-A-R), some might feature entries that wind through the grid in zigzag lines, some might replace the word list with a set of clues to solve—anything goes! But at heart, the puzzles are still accessible, fun word searches that are easy to jump into, even when there's an extra challenge involved.

The Last Dragon in Moominvalley

Tove Jansson

When Moomintroll finds a tiny dragon, he puts it in a jar to keep as a pet. Moomintroll is so excited, but soon realizes the little dragon needs to be free. When free, the dragon seems to prefer to be with Snufkin and this breaks Moomintroll's heart . . . and Snufkin is not so pleased to have this new friend around him all the time. A wonderful story about friendships and what they mean. Perfect shared reading.

Goodnight School

Catherine Bailey, Illustrated by Cori Doerrfeld

School's First Day of School meets Good Night, Gorilla in this irresistible bedtime story about School getting ready to go to sleep!

As the sun sets, a security guard arrives to help this sleepy little school get some rest. From tucking in chairs to checking all the locks to listening to the silverware snoring, she makes her moonlit rounds. One by one, the lights are turning off and everyone is turning in. Well, everyone except for the turtle from 2A. Will this escapee make it back to bed on time?

The Best You

Nima Patel, Illustrated by Cally Johnson-Isaacs

This empowering picture book celebrates the importance of being you; perfect for fans of I Am Enough and The Wonderful Things You Will Be.

Young children dream about who they'll be when they grow up—will they be a firefighter, an astronaut, or an artist? But what about being caring, passionate, and creative? Author Nima Patel crafts a thought-provoking story that celebrates self-acceptance and being present. The Best You teaches young readers that what you want to be when you grow up is not always as important as who you are.

My Friend Andy

Emma Chinnery

The big city is a scary place for Fluffy, the little lost dog—until she makes a friend who will help her in this carefully observed story that challenges readers to re-evaluate perceptions of homelessness.

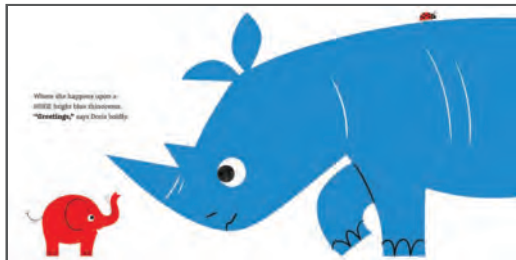

Emma Chinnery combines a gentle approach and a strong narrative to help guide authentic conversations around a complex issue in this heartwarming story about compassion and inclusion.

Doris

Lo Cole

Doris does NOT like to stand out. But as a red elephant, no matter where she hides, she is easily spotted. Whether hiding behind a flock of birds, within a bed of flowers, or among a school of fish, she can be seen. Can she find a way to build her confidence and embrace her colorful self?

Brave Like Fireweed

Jesse White

The journey begins in a young girl's bedroom, the night before a big performance. Excited but nervous, she dreams her way through North American flora and discovers the resilient, powerful, and radiant nature of plants and builds her confidence. Using a blend of social-emotional learning concepts and a poetic interpretation of the natural world, White showcases the complexities of nature alongside her stylistic and emotive art, encouraging readers to explore their feelings and emotions—no matter how big or small.

Penelope's Balloons

Brooke Bourgeois

Penelope loves her ten red balloons. She spends every moment with them, taking them with her everywhere she goes—school, ballet class, and the market. But when she loses all her balloons, Penelope is devastated. With a gentle nod to perennial classics in its art style, Penelope's Balloons is a celebration of differences, embracing your identity, and, especially, friendship. Debut author-illustrator Brooke Bourgeois beautifully explores childhood passions, identity, and anxiety in this timeless story about the power of friends, family, and community.

Five Bears

Catherine Rayner

Bear is walking through the forest, minding his own business when he comes across another bear. The Other bear is different. The two bears wander along, thinking different thoughts, and looking in different directions. Soon the two bears come across another bear and then another bear and eventually find a bear stuck in a tree. The Bears realize that perhaps they aren't that different after all and perhaps they could be friends?

Would You Dare Put a Diaper on a Bear?

Lillias Kinsman-Chauvet

This lighthearted tale highlights the absurdity of diapers as seen through the eyes of a child. Would you dare put a diaper on a bear? Or a flamingo or a rhinoceros! No, that would simply be preposterous.

Life's Little Lessons: Loud Louis

Amber Stewart, Illustrated by Sandie Sonke

Wherever Louis goes, a big, rumbling, gray cloud of noise goes with him. His response to everyday challenges is to shout, causing his friends to play on the other side of the playground. One day, a new girl called Serenity comes to school. Serenity has a sunny smile, and she teaches Louis how to use his words nicely.

Life's Little Lessons

for ages 0 to 3 focuses on the key moments in a toddler's life. With huggable characters and a big dose of gentle empathy, these books teach social skills with kindness and understanding.

Life's Little Lessons: The Sharing Star

Amber Stewart, Illustrated by Sandie Sonke

Serenity is very good at sharing things. She is happy to divide the play clay or the paint pots to share with the other kids at kindergarten. But when her mom has a new baby and the new baby shares her space and—more importantly—her mom's attention Serenity finds it much harder to share. She shares her fears with her mom, and feels much better, realizing that there is more than enough love at home to go around.

My First Microscope

Esme Lee

A simple, but effective rotating wheel turns this book into a microscope!

On each page, children are able to take a closer look at an ant, a flower, a pile of sand, and a snowflake to find out what they look like up close. They just need to turn the wheel to “zoom in”! Colorful illustrations by Esme Lee, short engaging text, and a book kids can play with are the perfect tools to stimulate their curiosity and desire to explore the natural world.

Trick or Treats

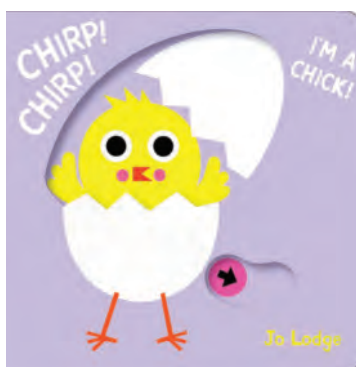

Lauren Crisp

A delectable board book with flap that celebrates how sweet Halloween can truly be.

Halloween can be as sweet as candy corn or as precious as a pumpkin. It can be more important than all the candied apples in the world. Toddlers will love the brightly colored illustrations and the engaging depictions of the holiday treats. This interactive pop-up book is a celebration of all the sweet aspects of Halloween.

Little Hands Big Fun

With great onomatopoeia and fun text, this simple interactive novelty series is perfect for young children who love to learn.

Charles Dickens, Abridged by Deanna McFadden

Young Pip seems destined to follow in his family's humble footsteps. Then one day, an anonymous gift suddenly transforms him into a rich young man . . . but will it also transform his life for the better? Dickens's great bildungsroman, featuring iconic characters like Miss Havisham, is an enduring favorite in schools, libraries, and homes.

Classic Starts®: Pinocchio

Carlo Collodi, Abridged by Tania Zamorsky

The young puppet Pinocchio dreams of becoming a real boy. But whenever he tries to prove himself worthy of the transformation, he falls into mischief and laziness. Pinocchio must learn the hard way how to become honest, kind, and—above all—human. One of the most-translated works in children's literature, Pinocchio is a thrilling story about improving one's character and learning how to live in an often-harsh world.

Mo Willems, #1 New York Times bestselling, award-winning author-illustrator, invites kids to take center stage in this one-of-a-kind theatrical event! Get your backstage pass to the world premiere performance of THE DAY ELEPHANT & PIGGIE MET!

Readers discover how to be a set builder, prop maker, costume designer, playwright . . . and star of the show in this 144-page, ACTION-packed ACT-ivity book from Mo Willems and pals. Featuring host and theater expert Drama Llama WingBang, plus Elephant and Piggie, The Pigeon, and an ensemble cast of characters, kids produce their own one-kid show from start to finish.

Bonus features include perforated pages, cut-out props, mazes, games, coloring, posters, and a SUPER BOUNCE game board. And don't miss the red-carpet (or living room-carpet) event of the year: The Pachyderm Awards!

Mo Willems is a number-one New York Times bestselling author, illustrator, playwright, and the inaugural Education Artist-in-Residence at the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts. He has been awarded three Caldecott Honors for his picture books, two Theodor Seuss Geisel Medals and five Geisel Honors for his celebrated Elephant & Piggie early readers. His debut book, Don't Let the Pigeon Drive the Bus!, was inducted into the Indies Choice Picture Book Hall of Fame. Willems began his career as a writer and animator on Sesame Street, where he garnered six Emmy Awards.

Mousetown

30+ Kids Crafts Made from Recycled and Everyday Materials

Jodi Levine and Margaret McCartney

Martha Stewart Living alumnae Jodi Levine and Margaret McCartney team up to create a beautiful and unique craft book that also tells the story of Mouse and his adventures in Mousetown. There are over 30 activities throughout the book that use recycled materials to recreate the story's scenes so kids can follow along or make new stories set in Mousetown with Mouse and friends.

Are You Small?

Words and pictures by Mo Willems

Mo Willems, #1 New York Times bestselling, award-winning author-illustrator, zooms in on the smallest things in the universe to explore one of life's most elemental questions in this nonfiction picture book about the relationship between size and scale.

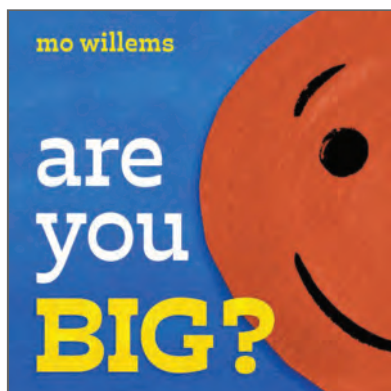

Are YOU small?

A little question sends readers on a BIG adventure to see the smallest of the small. From an average-size kid . . . to a cookie crumb . . . to a water molecule . . . all the way down to a single quark, readers discover that size is a matter of perspective.

The perfect companion title to Mo Willems' breakout title, Are You Big?, this early-learning concept book features bold text, expressive art, and real-world science.

Are You Big?

Words and pictures by Mo Willems

Mo Willems, #1 New York Times bestselling, award-winning author-illustrator, tackles a BIG concept in this hilarious nonfiction picture book about the relationship between size and scale.

Are YOU big?

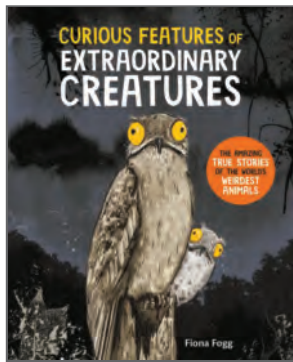

A simple question sends readers to the far reaches of the universe. From an average-size kid . . . to a hot air balloon . . . to a storm cloud . . . to the M100 Galaxy, size is a matter of perspective.

Bold text, expressive art, and real-world science come together in this original Mo Willems STEAM-based, early-learning concept book.

Curious Features of Extraordinary Creatures tells the essential facts about some of the unique mammals, birds, fish, reptiles, and insects found on our planet. Bite-size text breaks down key information about each creature's appearance, behavior, and habitat, while colorful and dynamic illustrations bring the animal to life. Each spread also features bold graphic-novel style panels that tell the story of a key aspect of each animal's daily life, such as the aye-aye foraging for its dinner, and the colugo gliding from tree to tree.

The book provides basic knowledge about both the vital functions of trees in a larger context and the structural characteristics of their many parts. Children will discover how trees grow, eat, drink, breathe, and sleep. They'll learn how trees defend themselves, how they sometimes attack, how they reproduce, and even in some incredible cases, how they move! Young readers will also be invited to reflect on how trees and humans coexist.

The House on Yeet Street

Preston Norton

When Aidan Cross yeeted his very secret journal into the house on Yeet Street, he also intended to yeet his feelings for his best friend, Kai, as far away as possible.

To Aidan's horror, his friends plan a sleepover at the haunted house the very next night. Terrance, Zephyr, and Kai are dead set on exploring local legend Farah Yeet's creepy mansion. Aidan just wants to survive the night and retrieve his mortifying love story before his friends find it.

When Aidan discovers an actual ghost in the house (who happens to be a huge fan of his fiction), he decides to solve the mystery of Gabby's death and free her from the house. But when Aidan's journal falls into the wrong hands, secrets come to light that threaten the boys' friendship. Can Aidan embrace the part of himself that's longing to break free . . . or will he become the next victim to be trapped in the haunted house forever?

Kiran Millwood Hargrave,
Illustrated by Tom de Freston

It's a summer of firsts for twelve-year-old Leila: her first time traveling alone, first time apart from Amma and her cousin Mona, and first time seeing her mother, a climate scientist in Norway, since war forced their family from Syria six years ago.

Together, Leila and her mother's research team follow the migration of a tiny Arctic fox, Miso, across ice floes and international borders, hopeful the midnight sun will illuminate how to adapt to a constantly changing world.

The Arctic Circle is nothing like Leila has ever imagined—so bright and brutal and undeniably wild. It tests her in every way: her understanding of home and what it means to belong, her determination to do what's right, and her belief in how much is possible in even the most impossible of situations.

Lost & Found

Based on a True Story

Mei Yu

Being the new kid in school is scary enough. But imagine what it would be like if you were the new kid in a new school, in a new country. That's exactly the situation Mei Yu finds herself in when her family moves from China to Canada. As she navigates her new school, she discovers a unique way to learn English and makes a new friend along the way in this heartwarming story based on the author's own experiences.

Mei's art style is reminiscent of The Baby-Sitter's Club Little Sister's series, with a touch of manga inspiration.

Nina Peanut: Creative Genius

Sarah Bowie

Perfect for fans of Diary of a Wimpy Kid, here is a witty and humorous story about a girl's claim to fame and her journey toward self-discovery.

Nina Peanut runs a very serious, very amazing video channel; so why are her grandmother and her best friend, Brian, her only viewers? Nina isn't as popular as queen bee Megan Dunne, whose own channel, featuring her incredibly trained (and perfectly coifed) poodle, gets thousands of views a day! But when Nina's cat accidentally turns into the star of one of Megan's videos, Nina realizes she just might have the chance to chase her dreams. But as Nina goes down the road of stardom, she starts to question whether or not fame is worth the price she's paying.

PetWizards

Kirk Scroggs

Perfect for animal lovers and fans of Lumberjanes, here is a hilarious graphic novel about a boy named Finch with the not-so-secret ability to control animals, and his mission to save the school musical and win the heart of his crush.

Finch is a PetWizard, with the ability to control the animal kingdom—well, the “et cetera” category of the animal kingdom. Though he loves his naked mole rats, bearded dragons, and boa constrictors, Finch yearns for more. With the help of his best friend, Aberdeen, a mysterious new kid named Erica, and an ancient PetMaster manual, Finch tries to learn how to own his powers and use them to help those in need, protect the vulnerable, and, most important, impress his crush, Ken Chu, the star of the upcoming school musical.

Bunny vs. Monkey and the Human Invasion

Jamie Smart

Bunny, Monkey, and the rest of the forest friends are back and funnier than ever in this follow-up to Jamie Smart's Bunny vs. Monkey, perfect for fans of Dog Man and Invader Zim.

Since crash-landing his rocket on planet Earth, Monkey has been causing absolute mayhem! Between Monkey's unreliable inventions and world domination schemes, Bunny and the rest of the forest friends have had nearly enough. In this rollicking comic extravaganza, the animals must tackle a helliphant, rocket-powered hot air balloons, and the most mind-boggling creatures of all . . . hew-mans.

Bunny vs. Monkey

Jamie Smart

When Monkey is sent into space by a team of scientists, he thinks everything will be smooth sailing. But not everything goes according to plan, and soon Monkey's spaceship crash-lands in a forest, disrupting the peaceful atmosphere. Convinced that he has discovered a new world, power-mad (but mostly incompetent) Monkey claims the forest as his own and determines that all other animals must be banished, including his soon-to-be nemesis, Bunny. As Bunny gathers reinforcements and goes head-to-head with the gadget-obsessed Monkey, hilarious hijinks ensue.

Now, Conjurers

Freddie Kölsch

Now, Conjurers* is a wildly original, spine-chilling YA debut about queer found family and a love that outlasts death.

November 1999. North Dana, Massachusetts. Nesbit Nuñez discovers the partially devoured body of Bastion Attia: star quarterback, secret witch, and Nesbit's even-more-secret boyfriend. No one knew why brilliant, gentle Bastion lived his life by a seemingly arcane set of rules, including a strange manner of speech and an inability to say his own name.

Nothing can prepare North Coven for what they uncover: Bastion had been locked in a terrifying battle of wits and wills with something living deep beneath an ancient mausoleum in the local cemetery.

They must confront the red-gloved monster that took piece after piece of Bastion, that he fought until his last breath. Not knowing that Bastion left behind the key to its destruction . . .

The Lies of Alma Blackwell

Amanda Glaze

For over a century, the Blackwells have protected the town of Hollow Cliff from vengeful spirits.

Sixteen-year-old Nev is ready to take over for her ailing grandmother as the town's witch protector—unlike her mother, who left when Nev was a child and never looked back.

When a stranger arrives at Blackwell House responding to a job posting, Nev reluctantly offers him the job.

Nev doesn't trust Finn Murphy—he knows more than he's letting on.

But when Finn reveals a terrible secret about her past, Nev realizes that she has been lied to her whole life. By following the trail of clues left behind in Blackwell House by her most powerful witch ancestor, Nev uncovers an unspeakable legacy of murder and lies. Nev and Finn must come together to rewrite a tragic history that has endured for too long.

When Kenny and Nicky rescue a rook left for dead, Kenny is determined to keep it alive. Nicky doubts the scruffy bird will make it, but then Nicky has plenty else to worry about. This time, it's not his dad or Kenny who needs help—his dad's sorting his life out and Kenny's busy making plans with his new best friend. Now it's Nicky's turn to struggle—with a school bully, his first love, and the fact that everything is about to go very, very wrong.

When Kenny and Nicky spot a glint of gold in the murky waters of Bacon Pond, they can't leave it alone. It means money, and money helps patch things up when you haven't got any. But sometimes it's better not to look too deep. Not when there are local gangsters involved, and tough questions about your own family's past. But Nicky can't help looking back. He knows it's a bad idea, and it could ruin everything. Can he save himself and his family, or will the secrets of the lake take them all down?

Things are getting tense at home for Nicky and Kenny as they wait for a visit from their estranged mother. To escape, they go for a walk on the moors, taking their little Jack Russell terrier with them. But what should have been a laugh, a lark, turns deadly when the weather changes and they are caught in a blizzard. Nothing will ever be quite the same again . . .

Life's not easy for Nicky. His mother is gone, his dad's out on bail, and his older brother, Kenny, needs looking after like a little kid. When Kenny drags Nicky out of bed one dark morning, Nicky has no idea that he is about to witness a terrible act of destruction, and the senseless killing of an innocent animal. But Nicky manages to save something precious from the disaster, and his and Kenny's lives are changed forever . . .
